FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 26, 2026

IRVINE, CA — IRVINE, CA — Olya Yepremian, CIC, has joined Alliant Insurance Services as Senior Vice President with Alliant Private Client. A distinguished leader known for guiding ultra-high-net-worth clients and their advisors through sophisticated risk management and wealth preservation strategies, Yepremian adds significant depth and experience to the firm's team.

Recognized for her consultative, relationship-first approach, Yepremian brings nearly 20 years of technical acumen with a strong background in claims advocacy, business management, and reputation protection.

I've always believed that this business is built on trust. Clients are making deeply personal and often complex decisions, and they deserve an advisor who listens first and acts in their best interest said Yepremian. "I'm excited to be part of this team that values long-term relationships over transactions and gives me the platform to keep building something meaningful."

"Our clients expect thoughtful guidance and steady leadership, especially when their assets and reputations are on the line.

Alliant Builds on Record Growth with Powerhouse Addition of Olya Yepremian

Olya has built her career on being that steady hand," said Cindy Zobian, Executive Vice President and Managing Director at Alliant Private Client.

She understands what it takes to serve sophisticated clients at the highest level, and we're excited to see the impact she'll have here at Alliant.
